OUR MISSION IS TO BRING PEOPLE BACK TO ORDINARY LIFE

Nochlezhka is a charity helping homeless people, founded in Leningrad in 1990. We help homeless people and those at risk of ending up on the street in St. Petersburg and Moscow: we feed, warm, help with documents, jobs and medical care, change public attitudes to homelessness and push for changes in the law. We are a non-governmental organisation and raise the money for our work ourselves.

OUR GOALS

- Build an evidence-based state, municipal and public system of rehabilitation for homeless people and prevention of homelessness, based on humanity, voluntary participation and respect for the person.
- Make sure anyone can exercise their constitutional rights regardless of whether they have registration or housing.
- Work towards a society with no divide between housed and homeless people, where homelessness is seen as a temporary period in a person's life.

THE YEAR WE STAYED CLOSE

2025 tested Nochlezhka's resilience. We turned 35, and raising money became noticeably harder. We did not open the Night Shelter in St. Petersburg and Moscow or the Heated Tent in Moscow, though we had counted on it.

And yet the most important things worked. We kept every direct-help project in both cities: food, shelter, showers, counselling and rehabilitation were there for everyone who came to us, and that is 8,377 people. We went beyond St. Petersburg and Moscow: Omsk Region became a pilot region where, together with the regional authorities, we developed a roadmap for a system of help for homeless people. We secured the creation of an interdepartmental commission on shadow employment and ran a campaign against labour houses. Our projects gained an employment specialist, an outreach service, a women's Halfway House in St. Petersburg and a theatre.

All of this is possible only thanks to you, the people and companies who stayed close in a hard year. Thank you.

WHO HOMELESS PEOPLE ARE AND WHY THEY NEED HELP

Anyone can end up on the street: it is almost never one event but a chain of misfortunes without the support of loved ones. Getting out alone is almost impossible. Russia has no system of social rehabilitation for homeless people, and a person without registration loses access to benefits, work and healthcare.

2,130,000

homeless people in Russia,
by Nochlezhka's estimate

7 years

the average length of homelessness;
without help, people mostly manage to get out in the first two years, after that returning to ordinary life gets harder

19 years

earlier is when a homeless person dies:
the median age of death is 53.7

77% / 23%

men and women among those who asked for help

WHY PEOPLE END UP ON THE STREET

Answers of 1,556 new Counselling Service clients in 2025; several reasons could be named Causes: Counselling Service data for 2025. Population, age of death and length of homelessness: 2024 research by Nochlezhka and the project "To Be Precise"; in 2025 Rosstat closed mortality data.

The journey usually starts at a Night Bus stop: a bowl of soup, a conversation with a social worker, then a shower and a consultation, then a shelter and a job. Each project is a step on the way back to ordinary life.

OUTREACH St. Petersburg

New in 2025: social workers go to homeless people and help where it is needed most, at Night Bus stops, in Heated Tents and at the Night Shelter.

NIGHT BUS: WHERE THE WAY HOME BEGINS

Every weekday evening two minibuses, one in St. Petersburg and one in Moscow, drive out to their stops. Volunteers hand out hot food and the driver, a social worker, explains where to sleep, wash and get a consultation. For many people this is where they first hear about Nochlezhka.

In 2025 the old vehicle in St. Petersburg wore out and, thanks to our supporters, a new bus took to the road. In Moscow we will change the route in 2026 to reach those who need help most.

COUNSELLING SERVICE: DOCUMENTS, WORK, COURT, THE WAY HOME

Social workers, lawyers and psychologists in St. Petersburg and Moscow see people in person and by phone. One person needs a passport restored, another a disability registered, a third wants to win back a flat taken by fraudsters through the courts. Complex cases get ongoing support and a personal plan.

Lawyers contest unlawful property deals, get people onto housing waiting lists and represent them in court. Psychologists work one-to-one and in groups. By phone we advise those who cannot come in person.

In 2025 an employment specialist joined the service, and in Moscow we adopted the FEANTSA model, a European typology of homelessness that helps us understand more precisely what a person is excluded from, and studied client experience.

WHAT WORKED AND WHAT DID NOT

WHAT WORKED

- Kept every direct-help project running in St. Petersburg and Moscow and helped everyone who came to us.
- Ran a campaign against labour houses and secured the creation of an interdepartmental commission on shadow employment.
- Omsk Region became a pilot region where we support the creation of a system of help for homeless people.
- Opened a women's Halfway House in St. Petersburg, launched outreach, an employment specialist role and theatre as a rehabilitation project.
- Put a new Night Bus on the road in St. Petersburg.
- Passed the Ministry of Justice inspection.
- Completed a major redesign of the website and visual identity.

WHAT DID NOT

- Did not open the Night Shelter in St. Petersburg and Moscow or the Heated Tent in Moscow.
- A lot of effort went into government inspections that continued all year.
- Rosstat closed mortality data, making it harder to measure the scale of homelessness.
- Worked almost all year without a head of fundraising.
- Faced mass refusals to place our clients in state care homes.
- Raising money is getting harder every year.

REDUCING THE SCALE OF HOMELESSNESS

RUB 8.9M

invested in sharing expertise and government relations

OMSK REGION, A PILOT REGION

For the first time we are building a system of help for homeless people together with a regional government. Over the year we held a strategy session with the Ministry of Labour and Social Development, drew up a roadmap for a comprehensive system of help, ran an expedition to study public opinion, and the Minister of Labour and Social Development of Omsk Region, Irina Varnavskaya, came to Nochlezhka in Moscow to see how our projects work. In 2026 the roadmap should become a working system that other regions can replicate.

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

We ran a campaign against labour houses, places where people without documents are made to work for food and a bed, and secured the creation of an interdepartmental commission on shadow employment.

RESEARCH AND EXPERTISE

We studied client experience and adopted the FEANTSA model in the Counselling Service. Rosstat closed mortality data, so the homeless mortality index we introduced in 2024 could not be updated this year. In 2026 we plan to bring like-minded organisations together in an association to coordinate our efforts.

INCOME: RUB 179.4 MILLION

54%

of the budget comes from private donations
by thousands of people

RUB 7.6

raised for every rouble invested in fundraising

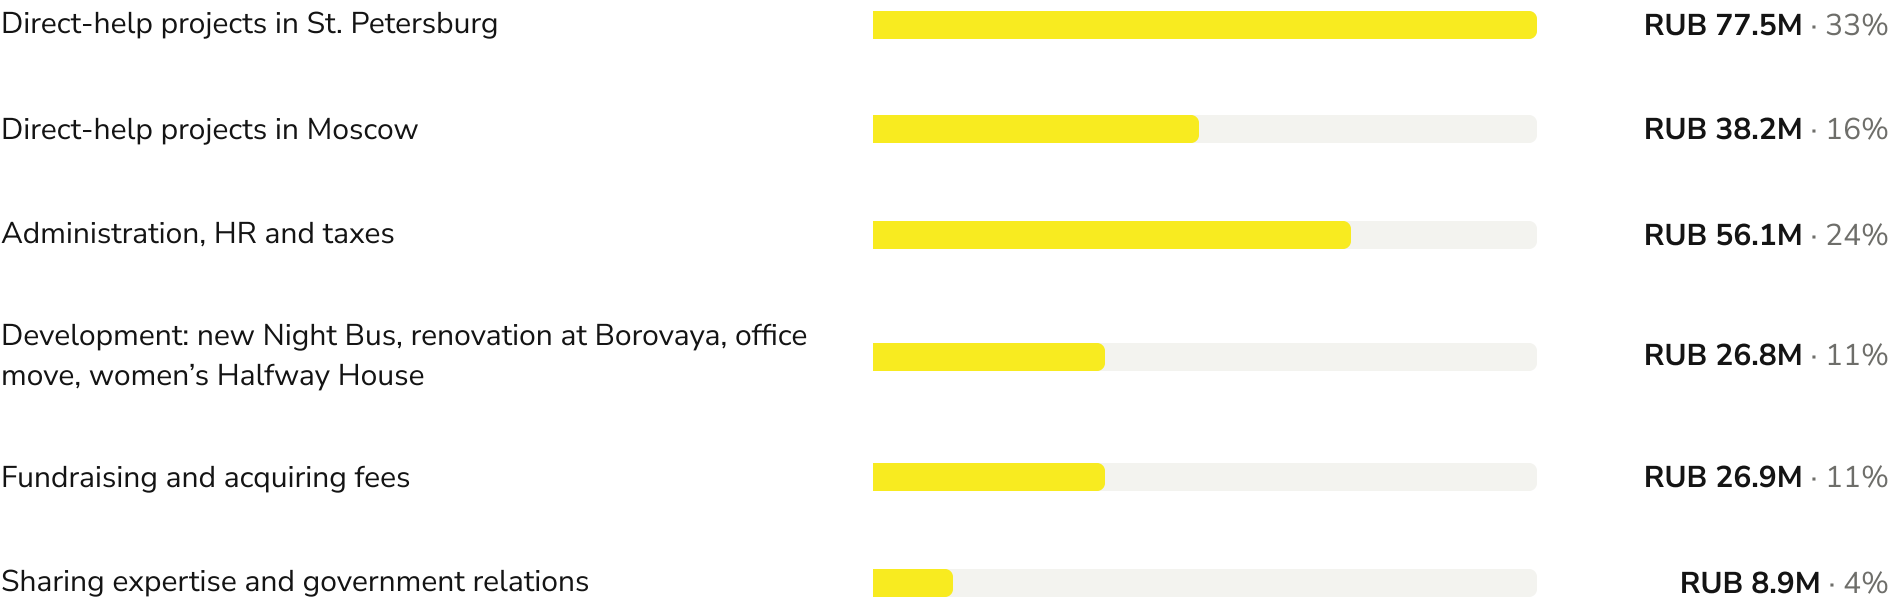

The gap between income and expenses was covered from reserves accumulated in previous years: at year end they stood at RUB 115 million.

EXPENSES: RUB 234.3 MILLION

61%
direct help
and project
development

90
staff: 64 in direct help, 26
in the back office

2.5
direct-help staff for every
back-office employee

The most expensive projects of the year were the Counselling Services (RUB 31.3 million in two cities), the Halfway Houses (RUB 18.2 million) and the Rehabilitation Shelters (RUB 15.5 million).

Expenses exceeded income by RUB 54.9 million. The gap was covered from reserves of previous years: at year end they stood at RUB 115 million.

With your support we bought a new Night Bus in St. Petersburg, renovated the shelter at Borovaya, moved to a new office and opened a women's Halfway House in St. Petersburg.
